

Cambridge Center Ethics Conference August 7, 2020 CE Questions

Lani Fritts, MBA

Title: Mergers, Acquisitions and Private Investors in ABA and the impact on clinical services and mission

Multiple choice questions/answers

1. What is the primary economic law driving the flow of capital into Autism services?
  - a. Supply and Demand
  - b. Rising Diagnostic rates of autism
  - c. Price elasticity
  - d. Utility

- 2) Which of the following are contingencies that impact investor behavior?
  - a. Fiduciary duty and value creation
  - b. Firm and individual incentives
  - c. Managing Risk
  - d. Time horizon
  - e. All of the above

3. Which of the following is a key strategy to align an investor with a company mission?
  - a. Monthly check in calls
  - b. Strategic Planning and Well-Developed Budgets
  - c. Keeping the corporate board very small comprised of only insiders or friends
  - d. Raising excess capital to make sure you never run out of cash

4. True or False – Healthcare consumption is generally not very sensitive to changes in prices, especially when a third party like an insurance company or public health option is paying for it.
  - a. True
  - b. False

5. Weaver and Trevino concluded in their 1999 study which orientation has a greater unique contribution to an employee’s willingness to report misconduct?
  - a. Values
  - b. Compliance
  - c. Tangible Reward
  - d. None of the above

6. Which of the following is how Aubrey Daniels defines “a leader” Measure of a Leader?
  - a. Someone with employees reporting to them on an organizational chart
  - b. A person with followers
  - c. An individual who sets a bold agenda and gets things done
  - d. All of the above

